

Mangosteen Nourishment for Hair and Body

Bring the luxurious serenity of a restoring spa experience into your home every day of the week with our new Juni by XANGO®. 100% pure essential oils awaken your senses and rejuvenate body, mind, and spirit with the nourishing benefits of mangosteen. Only from XANGO: pure vegan formulas designed for the well-being of body soul and earth.

Foundation of purity

Even from the first personal care introduction, XANGO has pledged to provide safe and toxin-free products. We remain true to our company's foundational philosophy: our products are authentic and painstakingly safe—free from toxic and harmful chemicals for both the consumer and the environment.

Spa luxury meets at-home getaway

The new Juni products delivers products that cleanse, refresh, and nourish with clean and safe formulas featuring Southeast Asia's nourishing mangosteen and an aromatherapy experience with 100% pure essential oil blends to relax, energize and awaken the senses. Bless and nourish your hair and body with Juni while honoring the environment we share. Juni turn even your smallest stolen moment into a restoring at-home spa getaway.
